

Tip – Accessing WebMail

WebMail is available to all CAMail Eudora email account holders through the CAMail website:

<http://www.camail.harvard.edu>

If Internet access is available to you at home or while you are traveling, you can access your Harvard Eudora email through WebMail using a web browser, such as Internet Explorer or Netscape, on either a PC or a Macintosh computer.

Once on the CAMail page, scroll to the WebMail section and click on the link named:

Connect to IMP \(Horde\) Web Mail

On the Welcome to Horde page:

1. Enter your user name, e.g. jharvard.
Note: Enter a maximum of 8 characters for your username.
2. Enter your Eudora password as you use in your office.
3. Click the Log In button.

You can also go directly to the HORDE IMP WebMail login screen at the link:

<https://www.camail.harvard.edu/horde/imp>
